

RANGERS BASEBALL LLC

Disclosure and Authorization Under Fair Credit Reporting Act

Please be advised that, as an applicant for employment or during your tenure as an employee, Rangers Baseball LLC and its affiliates (collectively the "Company") may procure, evaluate, and use reports from consumer reporting agencies to determine whether to hire you or continue your employment and to evaluate your fitness for employment. These reports include, but are not limited to, information on your motor vehicle record, earnings history, credit history, education, character, criminal record (if any), employment records, reasons for prior terminations, accident record, attendance, work performance, compatibility with coworkers, or any other information having a bearing on your ability to perform satisfactorily in any positions for which you may be considered. If the company should deny or terminate employment based, in whole or in part, upon information obtained from a consumer reporting agency, you will be informed in accordance with the Fair Credit Reporting Act.

Applicant Authorization

I have read the foregoing and expressly authorize the Company to contract with a third party consumer reporting agency to conduct a background search as described above.
